

RECOMMENDATION

SABIRGALIEV RESHAT

Sabirgaliev Reshat Saskebaevich was born in August 27, 1955 in Uralsk, Kazakhstan.

He works in the West-Kazakhstan branch of RSE “KazInMetr” (hereinafter - ZKF RSE “KazInMetr”) since April 2003 as a leading expert, from January 2005 as chief of the development and maintenance of standards and standard equipment department, from September 2008 as Director of ZKF RSE “KazInMetr”.

He has qualifications: academic standard of the public scientific keeper of the liquid flow rate, verification expert of measuring flow rate and quantity of liquids and gases.

Took part in the creation and certification of state standards – calibration setting Brooks Compact Proover in mobile calibration laboratory (MCL), carries out works on modernization of MCL.

He is correspondent of the Technical Committee 1.4 “Flow Measurements” COOMET since 2005, and in 2009 he was elected as a chairman of the subcommittee SC 1.4.3 “Liquefied gas” COOMET.

He examines international and interstate regulatory documents (OIML COOMET, GOST, etc.), publishes articles in the journal Metrology, participates in lectures in courses of professional development in the field of metrology.

COOMET Committee Member from Kazakhstan

Vasily Mikhalchenko

